for the office of Sheriff of Lewis county, sub-

Convention. By every principle of fairness, Colonel Woodford is entitled to the port of

MANY VOTERS.

BYRNE as a candidate for the office of Clerk of the Circuit Court of Lewis county.

Mr. Editor:—You will please announce Colonel JOHN KEE as a candidate for As-

MANY DEMOCRATS.

BRAXTON COUNTY.

For Sheriff.

Mr. Editor:—Please announce me as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Braxton county—subject to the decision of the county Democratic convention, should one be held. I would merely add that I was born and raised in Braxton county, have attained to the age of 38 years, and have never sought or asked for any office in the gift of the people. Feeling somewhat on the decline physically, by reason of hard labor, I feel desirous to run a race before I entirely break down. If I should be the choice of the people, I shall try to merit the name of a good officer, by faithfully discharging my duties.
— WM. H. BERRY.

Presiding Justice.

We are authorized to announce JOHN L.
RHEA as a candidate for the office of President of the County Court of Braxton county, subject to the decision of the Democratic county convention, should one be held.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Hash.—Our thanks are due and are hereby tendered to Dr. T. B. Camden, for files of Chicago and Detroit papers, sent us while on his journey to the west. Mr. Chalfant, with his usual energy, is moving for the establishment of a planing mill in our town —an institution long needed.

David Simmons, one of the most promising young men in this county, died at the residence of his father, Israel Simmons, Esq., on Freeman's Creek, a few days ago. A now and unknown sort of red bug is playing havoc with the potatoes in this region. The "cut-worm" is also said to be worse this season than for many years past.
—Mrs. Mitchell, wife of Ira E.
Mitchell, Esq., of Battelle township, and daughter of Squire Watson, died at the residence of her husband last week. A letter from Upshur was unavoidably crowded out this week—it will appear in our next issue. "U," also, had to "Hush" this week.

HOUSE BURNED.—On Tuesday night last, the residence of John Watson, Esq., of Battelle Township, was destroyed by fire, with nearly all its contents. The house was occupied by Mr. John Dodson and family. The fire was discovered soon after midnight, when it had assumed such proportions as to render the saving of the house an impossibility. Mr. Watson, in his efforts to save some of the contents of the house, narrowly escaped death in the flames. He was severely burned in the face and neck, and other portions of his body. The fire is supposed to have originated about the stove. Mr.
Watson has the sympathy of the entire community.

THE members of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society desire to tender their thanks to the unknown friend who remembered their cause so kindly by sending Two Dollars through the Post Office. They would also be glad to have this noble example followed by others.

F. M. BARNES, Cor. Sec.

I have just received $200 worth of Black Silk—the best ever brought to this market. Porter Johnson.
Fresh arrival—a beautiful lot of Hamburg Edgings, Nankooks, India Mulls, Crossbarred Muslins, Piques, white Swiss, fine Cambric, and in fact every kind of white goods now in fashionably use may be found at Porter Johnson's.

In the way of Ladies Kidde, and other Gloves, our assortment is complete. A large lot of Gents', Ladies', and Children's Hosiery just received at Porter Johnson's.

The largest assortment of men's clothing, boots and shoes, women's and children's shoes, ladies gaiters and shoe strings ever opened in this place.
I believe it is generally conceded that Porter Johnson can sell boots and shoes cheaper than other merchants can buy them. At any rate we defy competition in this line of trade, as well as in every other. Call and examine his stock before purchasing elsewhere.

They do say that suspenders are so cheap at Porter Johnson's Cheap Cash Store that every man in Weston could swallow "two buckles" once a day and never be none the poorer.

Buy your clothing at Porter Johnson's; for with every suit of clothes sold he throws in a box of collars, neck-tie, box of blacking, tooth pick, and many other little things, both useful and ornamental.

And just here, while we think of it, we will mention that you can buy good blacking at Porter Johnson's for 25 and 50 cents per dozen boxes.

Coffee—coffee—coffee—prime Rio coffee 25 cents per pound at Porter Johnson's.

Sugar—sugar—sugar—still the cry is sugar at 12 1/2 cents per lb at Porter Johnson's.

Still two pieces of straw matting left. More silk and Dolly Varden Parasols. Fine Leno Shawls, five million yards of cotton and calico, only 12 1/2 per yard, at Porter Johnson's.

General Amnesty.

If Horace Greeley never did any other good acts, the fact that he saved the life of Jeff Davis, by averting a Court Martial, and removing him from a loathsome dungeon on bail, and the driving of the present administration to an almost universal amnesty, and restoration of political rights, which the 14th Article of Amendments to the Constitution had imposed, entitles him to the thanks of the whole country.
General Grant had been approached, and with even more than earnest solicitation, had been asked to interpose the weight of his official position in behalf of amnesty, but all fell as dead weight on his ears; and we venture the assertion that no other man but Greeley himself could have so pointedly informed him of the peril of his situation as a continuance of the disabilities referred to imposed upon him. We understand that every rebel (so-called) in this State, except three, to-wit: Minister Faulkner, Congressman Bottler, and Colonel George Jackson, (who left the army) have been relieved; and it is with unfeigned pleasure that we make this announcement to our numerous readers, heretofore laboring under the disabilities before mentioned; and we regret that this announcement has been delayed by reason of our absence, for we are quite sure that no other information could be received with more satisfaction to the great mass of our people.

Our Judicial Circuit.

We have the pleasure this week of announcing as a candidate for the office of Judge of our proposed circuit, George Jackson Arnold, Esq., of Weston. We have spoken heretofore of this gentleman and his competitor, and refer to their announcements again as a matter of local interest.
It will be noticed that both the gentlemen announce themselves without any reference to nominating conventions, from which we infer that it is the desire of both to run independent of any nomination.
We approve of this course. The office of Judge is one which should not have any connection with partisan politics; and if there are to be but the two candidates, we should much prefer to see them run upon their merits.
In conversation with many distinguished Democrats from this District who were at the Parkersburg convention, we learned that this seemed to be the general wish of the people.
Should other candidates present themselves, a different course might be advisable; but from present indications, it appears that they alone will enter the field. Then sound the pi-broke! Let every man join the standard of his friend, and let there be a fair contest, independent of the corrupt influences of latter-day politics.

Woman's Right.

Clothes Line—Price 3 cents per foot, filled. Buy one!

JOHN M. STANLEY, Agent, Weston.

John L. Rhea.
It is with pleasure we call the attention of our Braxton friends to the announcement of the gentleman whose name heads this article, for the office of Presiding Justice. No more worthy man draws the breath of life—no more consistent advocate of Democratic principles is numbered among the citizens of our sister county. By electing him, Braxton county will honor herself, and will insure the services of an honest and capable official.

CORRESPONDENCE.

W. V. Childester.

BATTLE TP, June 5.

To the Editor of The Democrat.

It is with pleasure that the voters of Battelle Township notice the call of "Lincoln" upon WELLINGTON V.
CHILDSTER to announce himself as a candidate for the House of Delegates.
It is useless to multiply words—the people of the whole county know the gentleman. He is honest, capable and worthy of the position, and acquainted with the wants of our people.
He could not be swayed from the path of duty by any clans, clicks, or party rings; therefore, thinking he is the man for the position, we call on him to announce himself at once through THE DEMOCRAT, assuring him that he will receive a liberal support from the voters composing the Township of BATTLE.

A Sign of the Times.

JACKSONVILLE, May 25.

To the Editor of The Democrat;

As the people of Abram's Run were gathering for Sabbath School, a citizen from Braxton county, who had come over to salt his colts, discovered what he took to be a ghost dancing around on the ground, near the old haunted house which stands in a field near the School-house. Not liking its fiery appearance, he called a neighbor—a confederate soldier—to his assistance who, on seeing it, unhesitatingly approached, took it up, and after examining it, pronounced it one of the Greeley Balloons, sent out as a messenger of peace and hope from Cincinnati. After seeing the monster handled with impunity by his neighbor, the Braxton gentleman finally approached, touched it, took it up by the string, claimed it as his finder, and carried it home before his admirer neighbors, who have witnessed the truth of the adage that "Familiarity with danger breeds contempt of fear." Please put down Abram's Run as strong for Greeley.

There is hope that even our Braxton friend, as he becomes familiar with the Balloons, will forego his Radical propensities, and support the Cincinnati nominees.
